cobra
space

The logo features the words "cobra" and "space" stacked vertically in a bold, lowercase, sans-serif font. The text is centered between two stylized brackets. The left bracket is a black chevron shape pointing left, with a blue dot at its top end and an orange dot at its bottom end. The right bracket is a black chevron shape pointing right, with a blue dot at its top end and an orange dot at its bottom end.

- use imagery of space instead of cobra so it's less aggressive 😂
- you can call your coders "crew of astronauts"
 - "crew" is the collective noun for astronauts
 - collective noun for snakes is called a "den"
 - by definition, den can also refer to a place/space
- "den of coders" = refers to the space
- "crew of astronauts" = refers to the people
